Compliance/Breach Panel

Sometimes young people struggle to keep to their order.

The Compliance/Breach Panel will talk with you and your parents to find out what is going on and try to sort things out so that you do keep attending your sessions.

If there are problems then they will get sorted out.

What you MUST do when you see your North Yorkshire YJS worker

You must turn up to all sessions you are given.

You must turn up to all sessions on time.

You must work with our staff on why you have offended and how we can help you not re-offend.

You must let us know if you change your address and contact information.

If you can't make your appointment, tell us why (in good time) and give us evidence, like a letter from your doctor or dentist.

What you must NOT do

You must not miss any sessions or be late.

You must not attend your sessions under the influence of drugs, alcohol or other substances.

You must not be aggressive, disrespectful or rude.

What you must NOT do

You must not bring a dog with you to your sessions.

You must not bring a knife, weapon or sharp objects to your session.

You may be searched using a metal scanner.

You must not bring friends along to wait for you during your sessions.

What happens if you choose not to work with us

If you do not follow these instructions without good reason you may be sent back to court.

The court may give you new requirements.

You could even end up in custody (depending on your own situation, your original offence and how well you have followed these instructions so far).

Notes

North Yorkshire YJS respect and value people of different races, religions, genders, disabilities, sexualities and ages equally.

We expect you to do the same.

I understand and agree to these instructions
